Dear Chamber Members,

As we step into March, I am reminded how powerful it is when our business community comes together with purpose, energy, and heart. We are continuing to build momentum and the growth, collaboration, and engagement across the Irish Hills is proof of what we can accomplish together.

First, I would like to extend my sincere thanks to our incredible speakers, Lindsey Schiel and Robin Shear, for making our An Evening of Inspiration such a meaningful and motivating event. Their honesty, leadership insights, and passion for our community left us energized and reminded us why we do the work we do. The connections made and conversations sparked that evening are exactly what move our business community forward. If you attended, I hope you walked away inspired. If you couldn't join us, please watch for more events like this; your Chamber is committed to continuously offering opportunities that motivate, educate, and connect.

The excitement is also building for Taste of the Irish Hills! This year's self-guided foodie tour features a record number of stops, showcasing the incredible culinary talent throughout our region. Our restaurants and specialty food businesses have truly outdone themselves. Tickets are selling quickly, and I encourage you to purchase yours as soon as possible. This event not only highlights the best of the Irish Hills, it keeps dollars local and supports the small businesses that are the backbone of our community.

Looking ahead, we have outstanding opportunities for premier business exposure through sponsorships and booth space at two major upcoming events.

Our Aging Well Expo connects businesses directly with an engaged audience seeking services, resources, and products that support healthy and active living. If your business serves families, seniors, healthcare, financial services, home services, recreation, or wellness, this is an ideal setting to build meaningful connections.

We are also proud to introduce the inaugural Irish Hills Clay Classic. As our first year hosting this event, we are laying the foundation for what we believe will become a signature Chamber tradition. This event will blend networking, friendly competition, and community spirit in a unique setting. Sponsors and booth participants will receive valuable visibility while helping us launch something new and exciting. I encourage you to take advantage of these opportunities while space is still available.

Finally, I invite our entire community to join us for the Better Together Awards. This celebration is a powerful reminder that collaboration matters. It is an opportunity to support fellow business owners and recognize the innovation, leadership, and dedication that make our region strong.

Thank you for being part of the Irish Hills Regional Chamber of Commerce. Your involvement, ideas, sponsorships, attendance, and belief in our mission are what allow us to continue building momentum — continuously — for the Irish Hills.

I look forward to seeing you soon. With gratitude,

Cindy Hubbell

President/CEO
